Deputy Sheriff T. J. Perry, of Blaze, was in town Saturday.

Joe Osborne, of DeHart, transacted business in town Saturday.

I. Howard, of White Oak, transacted business in town Saturday.

J. P. Morris, of Caney, attended the Committee meeting Saturday.

John B. Williams, of Dingus, was a business caller in town Saturday.

James Sparks, of Sandy Hook, with Watts, Ritter & Co., was calling on our merchants this week.

A. J. Lindon, of Insko, attended the Democratic Committee meeting Saturday. You will always find Andy on the spot when his party calls.

County Supt. T. N. Barker requests us to say to the Morgan county teachers that the February draft, public school money, is now in and that all teachers are requested to come in and get their checks.

LISTEN.

We have a number of farms, boundaries of timber and town lots for sale which we have not the space to advertise. If you want to buy real estate call on us and we can show you what you want whether we have published a description of it or not. H. G. COTTLE & Co.

B. S. Stamper, of Cannel City, was in town Saturday.

W. T. Caskey, of Lenox, transacted business in town Saturday.

Bert Toliver, with Morehead Grocery Co., was in town this week.

Dock Stamper, of Grassy Creek, attended the committee meeting Saturday.

Mr. John Davidson, of Prestonburg, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Womack.

Aunt Paulina Kendall, who has been confined to her bed nearly all winter is improving nicely.

Uncle Wilse Lykins, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is reported much better at this writing.

Jas. Buskirk and John E. Williams, of Alice, were business visitors in town the latter part of last week.

B. B. Gevedon, Democratic Committeeman from voting precinct No. 6, Morgan county, attended the committee meeting Saturday.

Robt. Motley, of Ezel, was in town Saturday attending the meeting of the 91st Legislative District Committee (Democratic Committee of course).

R. M. Oakley and J. D. Lykins bought the Seitz Hardware Company's stock of goods yesterday and are invoicing today. We have no learned just what the style of the new firm will be.

Enoch Fairchild, of Goodsey, had the misfortune on the night of the 22nd ult., to get his barn burned, and there is strong suspicion that the fire was of incendiary origin. Two mules, one belonging to Mr. Fairchild and one to his son Fred, were burned to death. The barn also contained about 100 bushels of corn and two stacks of hay, all of which was a total loss.

The following Wolf county Democrats and politicians, were in evidence at the Committee meeting last Saturday: Candidates, I. N. Horton, Geo. P. Dyer and A. H. Stamper. Committeemen, A. B. Cox and Mitchell Campbell. A. C. Oliver, A. D. Lykins, Caesar Lindon, Jess Horton and J. W. Taulbee. These gentlemen are all prominent in Wolf county's political councils and it augurs well for the nominee, whoever he may be, to see such men as these taking such an active interest in the affairs of their party.

The following registered at the Cole hotel the past week. Lee McClain, Elkfork, Ben Murphy, Grassy, Sam Reed, Sam Salyers, White Oak, John Hicks, Olive Hill, Warne Keeton, Hager, J. F. Caney, Ky., February 21, 1911.

Committee Meeting of 91st Legislative District.

The Democratic Committee of the 91st Legislative District met at West Liberty Saturday, Feb. 25th for the purpose of fixing the time and manner of selecting a nominee for representative for said district to be voted for at the November election 1911.

A quorum being present the Committee went into executive session and called a primary election to be held in each county composing the district, (Morgan and Wolf) on the 27th day of May, 1911, that being the date of the State primary.

This call seemed to be entirely satisfactory to all interested parties and the nominee whoever he may be may rest assured that he will have the hearty support of his opponents who were unsuccessful in this race for the nomination.

WANTED.

The name, date of birth and birth place of every man and woman in Morgan county 80 years old and over. We want to compile a few statistics and will be obliged to any of our readers who will send us the name of any acquaintance of theirs who has reached the age of four score. Address COURIER, West Liberty, Ky.

Geo. B. Cox Indicted for Perjury.

Geo. B. Cox, "Republican Boss" of Cincinnati, was indicted by the Hamilton county, O., grand jury February 21st on a charge of perjury.

The charge upon which the grand jury found a true bill is that Cox testified falsely before the grand jury on March 21, 1906, in answer to questions as to whether he had received any interest or money which certain banks, according to disclosures brought out before the Drake investigating committee, had paid to John H. Gibson as gratuities, during his four years service as County Treasurer.

Carl Day. She will spend several days in Cincinnati with her sister, at which place her husband will join her and start for Davenport, Okla. We regret very much to have them leave us.

INDEX.

The cold snap is over and the farmers are getting ready for a crop.

The protracted meeting at Sycamore grove is still in progress and considerable interest is being manifested.

Rev. J. L. Ferguson preached Sunday at the school house to a large and appreciative audience. Frank Havens and wife both have lagrippe.

Jesse L. Havens and Miss Nannie Havens spent Sunday on Grassy creek.

John Music of Colorado sent Lee Ferguson a sack of Alfalfa seed. Mr. Ferguson is a good farmer and one that does his farming in person and not by proxy. So if it does not do well it will be no fault of Lee's as he will give it a fair test.

G. P. Dyre, of Wolf county, candidate for the democratic nomination for Representative in this district, passed through here Sunday on his way from West Liberty, where he had been to attend the Committee meeting. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the action of the Committee and that all he wants is a free ballot and a fair count.

Dr. W. H. Wheeler, of West Liberty, was here a few days ago on professional business.

W. D. Reed and son Victor of Wellsville, were the guests of the writer Sunday.

B. M. Carr was at West Liberty Sunday.

Mrs. Lou Ellen Byrd went to West Liberty Sunday.

A. D. Gibbs, of Pekin was here Sunday.

Born the 22nd to the wife of Wm. Short a boy, and to Mrs. Nannie Adams, a girl.

Noah Gear who has been going to school at West Liberty is at home this week with mumps.

Miss Carrie Reed was the guest of Miss Gracy Elam Monday night.

Work on the E. Henry cut began Wednesday morning.

A crew of carpenters are at work building a boarding house at Charleston.

The Legislative Committee did the proper thing in calling a primary election. This gives each candidate a fair show and every Democrat a chance to vote. It leaves no man with an excuse to bolt. We can recall but one instance in which the Democratic voters of Morgan county did not participate in the selection of the nominee and that was at the time that the Legislature made Morgan and Wolf two separate districts and each county nominated a candidate, W. B. Lykins in Morgan and a Mr. Oliver in Wolf. Just before the general election the Court of Appeals decided that the act creating the new districts was unconstitutional, so we had but one district and the party two nominees, so the committee in the two counties were called together and as it was Wolf's time they declared Oliver the nominee.
